

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 13, 2012

CONTACT: Elizabeth Diaz
Armanasco Public Relations, Inc.
831-372-2259
ediaz@armanasco.com

Cannery Row Shows Collections from Top Jewelry Designers from Around the World

MONTEREY, CALIF. – Cannery Row in Monterey, Calif. is a premier destination for contemporary designer jewelry. With such an inspiring surrounding, many jewelry designers take their design cues from the colors and textures found within the natural beauty of the coastline. Visitors can find collections from over 100 leading American and international jewelry designers.

As you walk along Cannery Row, several distinctive galleries such as Z Folio Gallery tempt with exquisite designs. Just recently The Design Center at JCK Las Vegas held its 9th annual Designer Retailer Awards where Z Folio Gallery was presented with a Top 5 Award. The Design Center's Designer Retailer Awards were created to spotlight those who have exceeded the standards of excellence in the promotion, merchandising and sales of designer jewelry.

“We are thrilled to be presented with the Top 5 Award. We are committed to representing some of the finest American and international jewelry artists and designers. We are honored to support their work, and we are pleased to be recognized for our efforts” said Zdena Jiroutova of Z Folio Gallery.

Z Folio Gallery brings amazing jewelry designs to Cannery Row, California's Central Coast most popular vacation destination welcoming millions of unique visitors each year. Cannery Row shoppers can find one-of-a-kind designs in gold, silver and semi-precious gems, Czech art glass, handmade designer jewelry, specialty charms, jewelry repair and even custom design sets for weddings.

Among jewelry designers featured at Z Folio Gallery on Cannery Row are: Bernd Munsteiner, Tom and Jutta Musteiner, Michael Lane, John Kennedy, Magick Fusager Design, John Petet, Tom Kruskal, Elizabeth Garvin, Jorge Revilla, Ed Levin, Sarah Graham, Marie Scarpa, Marie Betka, Cindy Mulhollen, Marya Dabrowski, David Tishbi, Lisa Slovis, Cari Streeter, Vera Novakova and Joryel Vera.

For more information about Cannery Row, please visit www.canneryrow.com

###

About Cannery Row

Cannery Row was made famous in John Steinbeck's classic novel depicting life in the "the sardine capital of the world." Today, Cannery Row is a beautiful waterfront playground where visitors from all over the world seek a California getaway as authentic as the coast itself. Cannery Row remains a treasure of California's Central Coast, where a discovery awaits every type of visitor. For more information, visit the official Cannery Row website at www.canneryrow.com.