SANTA CATALINA SCHOOL PRESENTS "THE MUSIC MAN" THIS FALL

MONTEREY, Calif. – October 4, 2007 – Don't miss the hilarious tale of a con man and his boy band. The seventy-six trombone hit "The Music Man" runs October 19 through October 26 at Santa Catalina School in Monterey. Advanced reservations are recommended.

WHO: Santa Catalina School Theatre Arts

WHAT: "The Music Man" by Meredith Willson
"The Music Man," winner of the Tony Award for best musical for 1957, is the story of Harold Hill, a con man who convinces parents he can turn their musically disinclined children into a band. Taking pre-paid orders for instruments and uniforms, he skips town and moves on to the next one before he's exposed. Arriving in fictional 1912 River City, Iowa, Hill finds his modus operandi compromised when he becomes attracted to the local librarian, who recognizes him for the fraud he is. The play was made into a major Hollywood film starring Robert Preston and Shirley Jones in 1962.

WHEN: Friday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, October 20, at 7:30 p.m.
