

CALENDAR ALERT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PR Contact: Betsy Wallace Jeffers
Armanasco Public Relations, Inc.
Tel: 831.372.2259
Email: bjeffers@armanasco.com

711 CANNERY ROW ARTISTS OPEN THEIR STUDIOS NOVEMBER 17

Art & wine event will benefit the Monterey Youth Arts Collective

MONTEREY, Calif. – November 9, 2007 – Did you know that the most recognizable building on Cannery Row, the famously red Monterey Canning Company, is now home to local independent artists? Get to know the artists of 711 Cannery Row, Saturday, November 17, during an evening of open art studios. View original works of art while enjoying wine from Bargetto and Silver Mountain wineries.

WHO: 711 Cannery Row – A group of independent artists in the old Monterey Canning Company warehouse.

WHAT: "Taste the Art, View the Wine" – Taste wine from Bargetto and Silver Mountain wineries while exploring open art studios at 711 Cannery Row. Enjoy exclusive views of new works and works-in-progress by nine local artists. Ten percent of all proceeds from a silent art auction will be donated to the Monterey Youth Arts Collective.

WHERE: 711 Cannery Row, at the end of Prescott Avenue
The artist studios are located on the second floor.

WHEN: Saturday, November 17, 2007
5:00-8:00 PM

An afternoon of open studios will also be held Sunday, November 18, from 1:00-4:00 PM.

COST: This event is free to the public.

INFORMATION: Rebecca Emanuel
Tel: 831.915.1757

###

About Cannery Row

Cannery Row in Monterey, California, was made famous in John Steinbeck's classic novel depicting life in the "the sardine capital of the world." Today, Cannery Row is a beautiful waterfront playground where visitors from all over the world seek a California getaway as authentic as the coast itself. Cannery Row remains a treasure of California's Central Coast, where a discovery awaits every type of visitor. For more information, visit the official Cannery Row website at www.canneryrow.com.