SANTA CATALINA SCHOOL PRESENTS "THE MIRACLE WORKER" THIS WINTER

MONTEREY, CALIF. – December 17, 2008 – Santa Catalina School students bring to life the amazing story of Helen Keller in "The Miracle Worker," January 18 through January 20. Experience one of the most successful and warmly admired plays of the modern stage as emotion-packed scenes take the audience through the true life of Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan. Advanced reservations are recommended.

WHO: Santa Catalina School Theatre Arts Department

WHAT: "The Miracle Worker" by William Gibson
"The Miracle Worker" is the gripping true story of the relationship between Helen Keller and her devoted teacher. As an infant, a severe case of scarlet fever left Helen Keller blind and deaf. Trapped in a secret world, unable to communicate, Helen was released from her dark, tortured silence by Annie Sullivan, who realized that the child possessed a wonderful mind waiting to be rescued.
