WAL-MART AND CREEKBRIDGE INVITE RESIDENTS TO A COMMUNITY INFORMATION MEETING

Information on the Proposed Soledad Plaza Shopping Center will be Available at the Event

SOLEDAD, Calif. – May 9, 2008 – Creekbridge and Wal-Mart invite the members of the South County community to the Soledad YMCA, 560 Walker Drive in Soledad, on Thursday, May 15, 2008 from 4:00pm-7:00pm for a community information meeting. Interested parties can learn more about the proposed Soledad Plaza Shopping Center, which will be located at Front Street and San Vicente Road in Soledad.

During the event various information tables will be available and provide details of the proposed shopping center as well as information on the approximately 800 jobs available if the center is approved. Members of the community who attend this event will also hear a presentation from Wal-Mart and Creekbridge about the proposed development and the benefits it will provide South County. Refreshments will be served.

For more information on Wal-Mart, please call (800) 630-9226 and for additional facts about Wal-Mart offers its associates, shoppers and local communities, please visit www.walmartfacts.com.
